

Census and Security

Title 13

Title 13 of the US Code provides strict protections to your census information.

The US Census Bureau CANNOT:

- Share your responses—even with other government agencies
- Use your responses against you in any way
- Sell any of your information
- Be used for law enforcement
- Use your information to determine eligibility for government benefits

The US Census Bureau DOES:

- Combine all responses for federal programs and funding distribution

Shape
your future
START HERE >

United States®
Census
2020